BLOCKING UNWANTED CALLS

Consumer Tools to Block Unwanted Calls and Text Messages

Federal Communications Commission

T-Mobile

1 T-Life App Scam Shield

Free, included with T-Mobile plans

Screen and block unwanted calls

Activation Steps

1. Download and open the T-Life app.
2. Log in to your T-Mobile account.
3. Tap Manage or Account.
4. Tap Lines and Devices.
5. Tap Scam Block.
6. Turn Scam Block on.

For a customer without access to T-Life:
Turn on Scam Block: Dial #662#
Turn off Scam Block: Dial #632#

2 T-Life App Scam Shield Premium

Paid, monthly add-on; included with certain T-Mobile plans

More control for the types of calls you can screen and block

Activation Steps

1. Download and open the T-Life app.
2. Go to Manage.
3. Select See Plans or Manage Add-Ons.
4. Select the phone line you want to update.
5. Select Scam Shield Premium.
6. Confirm your purchase to activate premium features.

3 T-Life App Family Allowances

Paid, monthly rate

A parental control feature that limits calls, texts, and data for each phone line

Activation Steps

1. Download and open the T-Life app.
2. Go to Manage Add-Ons or Account Services.
3. Select Family Allowances.
4. Add it to your plan.
5. Manage Family Allowances in the T-Life app.

4 Report Unwanted Calls & Texts

Free

Reports are used to update network policies

Calls:
Use Scam Shield within the T-Life app to report unwanted calls.

Texts:
Forward spam texts to 7726 without opening any links.

*The resources listed are provided for informational purposes. The FCC does not endorse any products or services listed, and is not responsible for the content, accuracy, completeness, or timeliness of products and services.